June 9, 2020
City Council Chamber
One Civic Center Plaza
Irvine, CA 92606

CALL TO ORDER

The regular meeting of the Irvine City Council was called to order at 4:07 p.m. on June 9, 2020, in the City Council Chamber, Irvine Civic Center, One Civic Center Plaza, Irvine, California; Mayor Shea presiding.

ROLL CALL

Present:	5	Councilmember:	Melissa Fox*
		Councilmember:	Farrah N. Khan
		Councilmember:	Anthony Kuo
		Vice Mayor:	Mike Carroll
		Mayor:	Christina Shea

* via teleconference

Prior to the Pledge of Allegiance, Mayor Shea announced that the meeting was broadcast live on Cox Communications Local Access Channel 30 and AT&T U-Verse Channel 99, and livestreamed online at cityofirvine.org; and that in an effort to protect public health and prevent the spread of COVID-19, the e-comment feature had been extended for all agenda items, which allowed members of the public the ability to submit e-comments through the public comment portion of each item and would be included as part of the official record. She also assured the community that the City of Irvine was adhering to the Governor's Executive Order in the Council Chamber and throughout City Hall by sanitizing surfaces and equipment, as well as wearing face masks.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Councilmember Kuo led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INVOCATION

Pastor Ralph Williamson from Christ Our Redeemer AME Church provided the invocation, accompanied by Jason Aguilar from Arise Church and numerous pastors from places of worship in the community were in attendance.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

Mayor Shea asked for a moment of silence in honor of Paul Brady, Jr., Irvine's second City Manager, who passed away on Saturday, June 6, 2020.

1. CITY COUNCIL RECOGNITIONS

1.1 Recognition of M.T.O. Shahmaghsoudi School of Islamic Sufism

This City Council recognition was agendized at the request of Councilmember Khan, who presented a commendation to M.T.O. Shahmaghsoudi School of Islamic Sufism for raising over $10,000 that was used to prepare and deliver 600 bags of food items and care packages to veterans and surrounding low-income communities.

1.2 Reaffirming Irvine's Solidarity Against Violence and Excessive Use of Force

Mayor Shea presented a proclamation reaffirming the City of Irvine's solidarity against violence and excessive use of force.

1.3 Proclaim June 2020 as LGBT Pride Month

This City Council recognition was agendized at the request of Vice Mayor Carroll and Councilmember Kuo, to which Vice Mayor Carroll presented a proclamation recognizing June 2020 as "LGBT Pride Month" in the City of Irvine.

City Clerk Perry noted 52 e-comments had been received, of which 43 were in support of the proclamation, two were opposed, and three were neutral.

CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

There was no report.

ANNOUNCEMENTS/COMMITTEE REPORTS/COUNCIL REPORTS

Councilmember Fox spoke in support of the proclamation recognizing June 2020 as “LGBT Pride Month,” and in support of flying the Pride flag at City Hall.

ACTION: Moved by Councilmember Fox to:

Display the Pride flag at City Hall in recognizing June as “LGBT Pride Month.”

City Attorney Melching noted that although the City Council could not take action on the item given that it was not originally agendized for discussion, a motion could be made to agendize the item for discussion at a future meeting.

Following clarification from the City Attorney, Councilmember Fox amended her motion.

ACTION: Moved by Councilmember Fox to:

Agendize for City Council discussion and consideration on June 23, 2020, the displaying of the Pride flag at City Hall in recognition of June as “LGBT Pride Month.”

The motion failed for lack of second.

City Council discussion included: suggesting that agendized items be meaningful by considering those impacted by the potential resulting actions; expressed support and actions taken by the City to support the LGBT community; and reiterated that the proclamation was signed by the Mayor and all Councilmembers.

Councilmember Khan made the following announcements:

- In partnership with the M.T.O. Shahmaghsoudi School of Islamic Sufism Center in Irvine, Councilmember Khan will be distributing personal protective equipment (PPE) to dentists in Irvine on June 13 from 8 to 10 a.m. When the pandemic began, many dentists donated their existing inventory of PPE to health care providers, and as dental offices reopen for business, many dentists have been facing difficulties in reacquiring PPE. To date, feedback from local dentists has been positive.
- On June 8, Councilmember Khan assisted the Newport Mesa Irvine Interfaith Council in hosting an interfaith press conference with local clergy, faith leaders, and Irvine Police with a message of unifying the community and finding ways to acknowledge and improve the quality of life for everyone.

- Ms. Laura Fairbanks shared with Councilmember Khan that her grandson, Kyle, who recently celebrated his ninth birthday, asked his family and friends to celebrate him by donating to his food drive for Families Forward. Over 40 people donated to his birthday food drive. Councilmember Khan wished Kyle a very happy birthday and expressed her appreciation for his kindness for those in need.

Councilmember Kuo announced his recent attendance at the grand opening of the Working Wardrobes Collection Center, located at 17392 Daimler. Working Wardrobes accepts donated attire on hangers every Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Mayor Shea made the following announcements:

- On June 3, the City launched the Small Business Support Program, which provides $10,000 grants for Irvine small businesses that have been financially impacted by COVID-19. By the end of that day, more than 1,400 grant applications had been received. Applications are currently in the review process. Funding for the program was made possible through a $5 million grant from the County of Orange, through the federally approved CARES Act. Mayor Shea expressed her appreciation to Orange County Supervisor Donald P. Wagner for his support of local businesses. The City will continue to seek ways to support small businesses in the future. For more information on the Small Business Support Program, visit cityofirvine.org.
- The City of Irvine, in partnership with the American Red Cross, is hosting a blood drive on Thursday, June 18 at the Orange County Great Park from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Community members are asked to consider donating blood based on the urgent need as hospitals resume surgeries and procedures that were put on hold earlier this spring in response to COVID-19. To schedule an appointment, visit redcrossblood.org and use sponsor code: cityofirvine.
- On Saturday June 13, Mayor Shea and Councilmembers will be participating in a Unity March, presented by Christ Our Redeemer Church, in coordination with Arise Church, Rock Harbor Church and our Irvine Public Safety Department. Participants will be peacefully walking together in solidarity and support of unity. Irvine leaders and Pastors will voice support for people of color, our city, and law enforcement. The community is invited to the family event, which begins at 10 a.m. and starts at Christ Our Redeemer AME Church, located at 45 Tesla, will proceed to Los Olivos Marketplace, and back to the AME Church for a rally, which will include speeches and prayer. Participants are asked to wear a facial covering, and bring signs with messages of hope and unity.

ADDITIONS AND DELETIONS

City Manager Russo asked for a continuance on Public Hearing Item Nos. 3.1 (Appeals of the Planning Commission's Approval of 00790906-PMPC, a Commercial Master Plan and Transfer of Development Rights at 2400 Barranca Parkway in Planning Area 36 – Irvine Business Complex); and 3.2 (Zoning Ordinance Update – Accessory Dwelling Units).

4.2 REMOVED

This item was removed from the agenda originally posted on May 28, 2020.

4.3 CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST BY MAYOR SHEA TO DISCUSS REQUESTS FROM UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE, STUDENTS IMPACTED BY COVID-19

This item was agendized at the request of Mayor Shea, who asked for City Council consideration to discuss various legislative and financial requests by University of California, Irvine, students.

City Council discussion included: questioning the legality of rent waivers; noted that additional financial relief was forthcoming through the State's rental assistance program, as well as the potential for CARES Act funding; inquired about the City's liability with respect to back rent; inquired about HCD funding (Senate Bill 2) and whether the City has applied for these funds; discussed options for a rental assistance program, including qualifications, grant amounts, and disbursements; inquired about whether the County of Orange had a rental assistance program; questioned why the potential would exist for a drop in property tax revenue; discussed potential opportunity costs related to housing assistance; inquired about the eviction process and whether court hearings continued to be impacted by COVID-19; discussed a moratorium to freeze evictions and rent increases; and suggested using contingency reserves to implement a rental assistance program, with the potential to add additional funds through State and Federal grants.

Molly Perry, City Clerk, explained the protocol for e-comments related to business items for the meeting, noting that those received prior to 2 p.m. were included in the materials before the City Council at the dais; and those e-comments received after 2 p.m. would be scrolled on the large screen and either read or summarized into the record.

City Clerk Perry also noted that approximately 40 e-comments were received for this item, with those noted below having been received after 2 p.m.:

- Stephanie Dorantes, and Marie King, who spoke in support of a moratorium on evictions and rent increases and/or the suspension of rent for all citizens of Irvine.
- Denis Burlakov, spoke in support of financial assistance for those students who do not qualify for other support programs due to the financial cap being met on provided services.
- Davina Chang, Dan Dalat, and Nalya Rodriguez, who spoke in support of waiving fees for breaking leases.
- Emily Luong, who spoke in support of additional emphasis on helping all residents in the City directly, and in opposition to recent comments made by Mayor Shea.
- Georgia Simmons, who spoke in support of financial assistance for students in Irvine and the “Black Lives Matter” campaign.
- Callie Connell and Anonymous, who spoke in support of financial assistance for students, and in opposition to recent comments made by Mayor Shea.
- Dashay Richardmond and Anon Ymous, who spoke in support of financial assistance for students.
- Audrey H and Daniel C, who spoke in support of financial assistance for all renters.
- Anon Ymous, who spoke in support of financial assistance for students living in Irvine Company apartments, including international students who are often ineligible for financial aid.

Councilmember Kuo questioned whether members of the public could submit e-comments anonymously, to which City Clerk Perry confirmed that anonymity was permitted.

Mayor Shea addressed concerns raised by members of the public with respect to comments she had made via social media and provided clarity to those comments.

RECESS

At the request of City Manager Russo, Mayor Shea called a recess at 5:33 p.m. to address technological issues with the livestreaming of the meeting.

RECONVENE TO THE CITY COUNCIL MEETING

Mayor Shea reconvened the City Council meeting at 5:37 p.m.

4.3 CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST BY MAYOR SHEA TO DISCUSS REQUESTS FROM UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE, STUDENTS IMPACTED BY COVID-19 (CONTINUED)

ACTION: Moved by Councilmember Fox to:

- 1) Create a renters' relief fund similar to City of Anaheim using $5 million from Contingency Reserves.
- 2) Prohibit unconscionable, draconian, and unlawful termination fees.
- 3) Create a moratorium that is enforceable on evictions and rent increases.

The motion failed for lack of second.

Additional discussion included: expressing concern about using General Fund monies due to the anticipated deficit; discussed auditing requirements; inquired about the existing moratorium from the State and other existing laws pertaining to evictions; inquired about lease break fees required by landlords; suggested a two-tier program for rent and lease break relief; discussed suggestions for program criteria; inquired about rental assistance through the University of California system; questioned whether other cities were providing financial relief for students; suggested the submittal of a letter to the University of California Regents outlining the City's efforts to provide financial relief for students; expressed concern about the legalities of financial assistance by the City; inquired about whether a financial relief program would be similar to the program recently created for small businesses; reiterated that the program would be available to all Irvine renters and not limited to students; suggested heavy public outreach; and reiterated that no General Fund monies would be used to fund the program.

Jeff Melching, City Attorney, confirmed existing laws with respect to evictions; and noted that a renters' relief program would require proof of residency such as a utility bill, lease, or other document proving residency.

Marianna Marysheva, Assistant City Manager, confirmed that the City could utilize State funding for lease break assistance, and suggested seeking emergency grant funding from the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Emergency Solutions Grant for rental assistance, reiterating that HUD funds could not be used for lease break assistance. She also noted that staff may need to return to the City Council at the next meeting for approval of a program administrator.

ACTION: Moved by Councilmember Khan, seconded by Mayor Shea, to:

Direct staff to explore opportunities for State funding to assist with fees associated with breaking leases, as well as opportunities for Housing and Urban Development (HUD) funding for rent relief during the emergency crisis.

ACTION: A friendly amendment was made by Mayor Shea, and accepted by Councilmember Khan as the maker of the motion, and unanimously carried to:

- 1) Direct staff to explore a two-tiered program that would pursue opportunities for State funding (CARES Act) to assist with fees associated with breaking leases, as well as opportunities for Housing and Urban Development (HUD) funding for rent relief during the emergency crisis.
- 2) Authorize a rental assistance program in the amount of $2 million, with the following allocations:
 - a) Designate $1 million to be used for fees associated with breaking leases, up to $1,000 per eligible household.
 - b) Designate $1 million to be used for rent relief, up to $1,000 per eligible household.

4.4 COVID-19 SITUATIONAL UPDATE AND DIRECTION TO DIRECTOR OF EMERGENCY SERVICES ON RELEVANT ACTION ITEMS

Pete Carmichael, Director of Community Development, provided a brief report on available financial support for small businesses in Orange County Districts 3 and 5; and Laurie Hoffman, Director of Community Services, provided a brief update on the reopening of community facilities.

City Council discussion included: inquiring about updates on retail and restaurant re-openings; expressed support for summer camp programs; and discussed the re-opening of public and homeowner association recreational pools.

City Manager Russo noted that Michelle Grettenberg, Deputy City Manager, had participated in a conference call with the County's Chief Executive Officer and learned that the County's Health Officer would approve the re-opening of pools by Thursday, June 11, for the potential reopening as early as Friday, June 12.

Molly Perry, City Clerk, noted that the following e-comments had been received:

- Rich Lutrell, Irvine resident, who on behalf of his homeowners' association, inquired about the reopening of association swimming pools and whether the association must comply with the closure requirement.
- Courtney Echols and Jay Contra, who spoke in support of the suspension of rent.
- Scott Hansen, who spoke in support of COVID-19 testing for Irvine residents at no charge.
- T. Hayes, who spoke in support of a moratorium on rent increases, lease breakage fees, evictions, foreclosures, cease executing writs of possession, and utility forgiveness.
- Stephen Gaiber, who spoke in support of the re-opening of recreational pool and hot tubs in apartment communities.

By consensus, received and filed. No action was taken.

4.5 CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST BY VICE MAYOR CARROLL AND COUNCILMEMBER KUO TO ADOPT A RESOLUTION TO REQUEST A DELAY IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TITLE 14 OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION 15064.3

This item was agendized at the request of Vice Mayor Carroll and Councilmember Kuo, who asked for City Council consideration of the adoption of a resolution to request a delay in the implementation of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations, Section 15064.3.

Jaimee Bourgeois, Director of Transportation, provided a brief report and responded to City Council questions, noting that additional information and a recommendation from staff would be forthcoming on June 23, 2020.

City Council discussion included: questioning the timing of the proposed resolution based on what was forthcoming from staff on June 23, 2020; clarified the intention of the resolution and its corresponding request; questioned whether a new development project requiring California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) review would include vehicle miles traveled (VMT) as a measurement with respect to traffic; and inquired about whether the proposed resolution would amend the City's Municipal Code or if it simply requested a delayed implementation from the State.

Steve Greenberg, Chairman of the Transportation Commission, spoke in opposition to the proposed resolution.

City Attorney Melching asked for City Council clarification on a certain provision within the proposed resolution that could potentially conflict with what staff would be bringing forward on June 23, 2020; and confirmed that the proposed resolution would not change the Municipal Code, but rather, asks the delay of implementation of VMT.

ACTION: Moved by Vice Mayor Carroll, seconded by Councilmember Kuo, to:

Adopt RESOLUTION NO. 20-46 – A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF IRVINE, CALIFORNIA, TO REQUEST A DELAY IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TITLE 14 OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION 15064.3

The motion carried as follows:

AYES:	4	COUNCILMEMBERS:	Carroll, Khan, Kuo, and Shea
NOES:	1	COUNCILMEMBERS:	Fox
ABSENT:	0	COUNCILMEMBERS:	None

4.6 CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST BY MAYOR SHEA, VICE MAYOR CARROLL, AND COUNCILMEMBERS FOX, KHAN, AND KUO, IN SUPPORT OF A RESOLUTION ASSURING OUR COMMUNITY THAT THE CITY OF IRVINE WILL NOT AND DOES NOT TOLERATE THE VIOLENT TREATMENT OF OTHERS AND THE DISREGARD OF THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

Mayor Shea turned to Vice Mayor Carroll as the author of the proposed resolution, who assured members of the community that he, along with his City Council colleagues, have heard the community's concerns; and provided a brief summary of the proposed resolution and its intention.

City Council discussion included: referencing the recent peaceful protests by members of the community and Irvine Police Department's handling of the events; inquired about whether the proclamation would be available online; noted the City Council's upcoming participation in a unity march; discussed the events that lead to the Minneapolis incident and the death of George Floyd; expressed concern about continued racism in the United States; suggested the proclaiming the City Council's support for peaceful protesting, noted support for substantive and structural changes at the upcoming City Council meeting; and referenced the goals and objectives of the Safe Community Task Force.

Molly Perry, City Clerk, reiterated the protocol for e-comments related to business items for this meeting, noting that those received prior to 2 p.m. were included in the materials before the City Council at the dais; and those e-comments received after 2 p.m. would be scrolled on the large screen and either read or summarized into the record.

City Clerk Perry also noted that approximately 65 e-comments were received for this item, with those noted below having been received after 2 p.m.:

- Stephanie Durantes, who spoke in support of the "Black Lives Matter" campaign.
- Jonathan Beer, who suggested that the proposed resolution not impact First Amendment speech rights.
- Yultzin Angeles, who spoke in support of the "8 Can't Wait" campaign.
- Jorge Barajas and Dean L., who spoke in support of policies and procedures to prevent the spread of police brutality, including the reallocation of police department funding into other community resources.

- Audrey H., who spoke in support of the “Black Lives Matter” campaign, and suggested the reallocation of police department funding into other community resources.
- Chaz E., who spoke in opposition to prior and recent comments made by Mayor Shea, and in support of reallocation of police department funding.
- Nicole Trieu, who spoke in support of enacting several policies to defend black lives.
- Courtney Echols, who spoke in opposition to license plate readers targeting immigrants and racial profiling; and in support of the “Black Lives Matter” campaign and the reallocation of police department funding.

Prior to a vote, Councilmember Khan suggested modifications to further strengthen the proposed resolution.

ACTION: Moved by Vice Mayor Carroll, seconded by Councilmember Kuo, and unanimously carried to:

Adopt RESOLUTION NO. 20-47 – A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF IRVINE, CALIFORNIA, AFFIRMING THAT THE CITY OF IRVINE WILL NOT AND DOES NOT TOLERATE THE VIOLENT TREATMENT OF OTHERS AND THE DISREGARD OF THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE as amended to include the following changes:

- a) Add to the end of the fifth whereas: “...and the Irvine Police Department operates under a set of values that prioritizes the community, public safety, and policing efforts.”
- b) Add to the end of the sixth whereas: “...and this City Council does not and will not tolerate the anguish, suffering, and pain caused by injustice, racism, and hate.”
- c) Add an additional whereas as follows: “WHEREAS, we stand with the African American members of our community, with all people of color in our community, and with all those who have been marginalized and disenfranchised, we stand with the entire Irvine Community to peacefully protest, which serves as a critical tool for public awareness.”

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Molly Perry, City Clerk, noted that approximately 42 e-comments had been received, of which approximately 25 had been received prior to 2 p.m., which were included in the materials before the City Council at the dais; and those e-comments received after 2 p.m. would be scrolled on the large screen and summarized into the record, which were as follows:
